LAW BOOKS.

FOR LAWYERS, JUSTICES OF THE PEACE, the Government.

Of the State of adiana,

EDITED BY

JAMES GAVIN AND OSCAR ORD. Volume 1, Published by BINGHAM & DOUGHTY.

Judge David McDonald, one of the most eminent lawyers of the State, volunteered the followin,

STATUTES OF INDIANA, BY GAVIN & HORD. - Some months the statutes of the State passed since 1851, with adnotations. The first volume of the work is now published; and statutes to find any particular enactment. And every the knows how annoying and provoking this is, especially in the hurry of business as in our Courts. Happily for the profession, the publication under consideration promises a better state of things in the future. The first volume of Messrs, Gavin & Hord's work contains an excellent and opious index, which to every practicing lawyer in the tate is itself worth the money which the volume costs. The volume under review contains another excellence llits pages are supplied with valuable marginal indices, eader of the contents of the page. our legislation on any given subject had first to find what o that a glance at the margin is sufficient to apprise the Another matter of great importance to the lawver in islation since 1851. Heretofore, the lawyer in examining was relevant to it in the Revision of 1852, and then to turn over the pages of the volumes of subsequent Statutes, to see how far recent legislation may have repealed or mod fied the provisions contained in that Revision, and even then he would often feel doubt whether he had found all the legislation on the subject of his inquiry. Messrs. Gavin and Hord have relieved us of all this trouble and doubt. They have collected together in consecutive pages all the statutes made since 1851, on the same subject. Thus, on pages 373 to 377 of their first volume they have collected all our legislation, now in force, on the subject o husband and wife, including the act of 1852 and three act of 1857. And they have followed the same mode o coocation, in appropriate consecutive pages, in regard to all other topics of legislation. A still more valuable feature are the copious and accu-Constitution of Indiana, and several important acts of Virown statutes now in force. The numerous decisions o the tutions and statutes are found at the bottom of the approprinte pages, in the form of neat, brief and accurate noteand references. Messrs. Gavin & Hord seem to have performed this part of their work exceedingly well. It must have cost them much care and labor. By it they have greatly lessened the labor of the practising lawyer, and have well merited his grateful approval.

In every respect the volume under review is highly red-Itable to the dilligence, accuracy, talents and the taste o its editors, as well as to the mechanical skill and neatnes of its publishers, and it must raise the just expectation o the profession, as to the value of the second volume, which we understand will be forthcoming in a few months, and which will contain the code of pleading and practice out Without any concert with the editors or publishers of the volume in question, the writer of this article has been induced to compose and publish this little review of the book.

The first volume is now ready and being delivered to PRICE $4 50. BINGHAM & DOUGHTY, It is for sale by

Dear Sir:—I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstances, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth, so much so that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and he is very well known in our adng counties, many persons can testify to the truth of

Wood, Dear Sir-In the latter part of the year 1852, while attending to the State and National Law School of the State of New York, my hair, from a cause unknown to me, commenced falling off very rapidly, so that in the short space of six months, the whole upper part of my scalp was entirely bereft of its covering, and much of the remaining portion upon the side and back part of my head shortly after became gray, so that you will not be surprised when I tell you that upon my return to the State of Indiana, my more casual acquaintances were not so much at a loss to discover the cause of the
